A Woman's Loyalty, Courage, and Devo-

Mrs. Sarah R. Johnston, of Salisbury, N. C., furnished some interesting records of the prison at that place, which we published yesterday. The New York Post gives a thrilling narrative of this loyal woman's

At the breaking out of the war Mrs. Johnston was teaching a school at Salis-bury, where she was born, and always re-sided. When the first prisoners were sided. When the first prisoners were brought into that place, the Southern women turned out in their carriages, and, with a band, escorted them through the town, and when they filed past saluted them with contemptuous epithets. From that time Mrs. Johnston determined to devote herself to the amelioration of the condition of the prisoners; and the testimony of thousands of the Union soldiers confined there prove how nobly she performed the duties she undertook. It was no easy task, for she was entirely alone, being the only woman who openly advocated Union sentiments and attempted to administer to sentiments, and attempted to administer to the wants of the prisoners. For fifteen months none of the women of Salisbury spoke to her or called upon her, and every possible indignity was beauted on her expossible indignity was heaped on her as a "Yankee sympathiser." Her scholars were withdrawn from her school, and it was broken up, and her means were very limited; nevertheless, she accomplished more by systematic arrangements than many would have done with a large outlay of

When the first exchange of prisoners was made, she went to the depct to arrange some pallets for some of the sick who were leaving, when she stumbled in the crowd, and looking down she found a young federal soldier who had fainted and fallen, and was in danger of being trodden to death, She raised him up and called for water, but none of the people would get a drop to save a "Yankee's" life. Some of the soldiers who were in the cars threw their canteens to her, and she succeeded in reviving him, during this time the crowd heaped upon her every insulting epithet they could think of, and her life even was in danger. But she braved all, and succeeded in obtaining permission from Colonel Godwin, then in command of the post, who was a kind-hearted man, to let her remove him to her own house, promising to take care of him as if he were her own son, and if he died to give him Christian burial. He was in the last stages of consumption, and she felt sure he would die if taken to the prison hospital. None of the citizens of the place would even assist in carrying him, and after a time two gentlemen from Richmond stepped forward and helped convey him to her house. There she watched over him for hours, as he was in a terrible state from neglect, having had blisters applied to his chest which had never been dressed and were full of vermin.

poor boy, whose name was Hugh from Ohio, only lived a few days, and she had a grave dug for him in her garden in the night, for burial had been refused in the public graveyard, and she was threatened that if she had him interred dethreatened that if she had him interred de-cently his body would be dug up and buri-ed in the street. They even attempted to take his body from the house for that pur-pose, but she stood at her door, pistol in hand, and said to them, the first man who dared to cross her threshold for such a purpose should be shot like a dog. They did not attempt it, and she performed her promise to the letter.

During the first two years she was enabled to do a great many acts of kindness for the prisoners, but after that time she was watched very closely as a Yankee sympathiser, and the rules of the prison were ter, and what she could do was done by

Her means were now much reduced, but sne still continued in her good work, cut-ting up her carpets and spare blankets to make into moccasins, and when new squads of prisoners arrived, supplied them with bread and water as they halted in front of her house, which they were compelled to do for hours, waiting the routine of being mus-tered into the prison. They were not allow-ed to leave their ranks, and she would turn an old-fashioned windlass for hours, raising water from her well; for the prisoners were often twenty-four to forty-eight hours on the railroad without rations or water.

Generally the officer in command would grant her request, but once a sergeant told her, in reply, if she gave any of them a drop of water or a piece of bread, or dared drop of water or a piece of bread, or dared to come outside her gate for that purpose, he would pin her to the earth with his bayonet. She defied him, and taking her pail of water in one land, and a basket of bread in the other, she walked directly past him on her errand of mercy; he followed her, placing his bayonet between her shoulders, just so that she could feel the cold steel. She turned and coully asked the cold steel. She turned and coolly asked him why he did not pin her to the earth, as he had threatened to do, but got no reply. Then some of the rebels said, "Sergean, he had threatened to do, but got no reply. Then some of the rebels said, "Sergeant, you can't make anything on that woman, you had better let her alone," and she performed her work unmolested. She came North last summer to wish her daughter, who had been placed at a school in Connecticut by the kindness of some of the office is she had befriended in prison; transportation having been given her by Generals Sch field and Carter, who testified to the services she had rendered our prisoners, and that she was entitled to the gratitude of the Government and all loyal citizens.

Though Mrs. Johnston does not ask for any assistance, yet her means are so limited

Madison County, Alabama - Bad Indica-

The Huntsville Advocate, of the 9th, contains the returns of the elections in Madison county, on the 6th inst. Hon. D. C. Humpreys was beaten for the Senate by Gen. J. N. Drake-the former receiving 595 votes, the latter 1,008. The Advocate says they took issue in the canvass "on the says they took issue in the canvass "on the ratification by the Legislature of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, forever abolishing slavery—Humphreys for and Drake against it. On this issue, which they discussed over the county, the people decided by a majority of 413 votes against ratifying the constitutional amendment, which the President regards 'as indispensable to a successful restoration of the true loyal relations between Alabama and the other States, and equally indispensable to the return of peace and harmony throughout the Republic.' The people of Madison county have thus, by a vote of 1008 to 595, arrayed themselves against the policy of President themselves against the policy of President Johnson, as officially announced by Mr. Seward to the Government of Florida. And this vote, where the issue was so distinctly made, is in the nature of instructions to the members elect to the House to oppose this measure so indispensable to a successful restoration of the true loyal relations ful restoration of the true loyal relations between Alabama and other States, and equally indispensable to the return of peace and harmony throughout the Republic.' Such is the verdict of the people of Madisson rendered at the ballot-box against President Johnson's policy in this respect." For Congress, B. T. Pope, who announced that he could take the Congressional oath, received 367 votes: whilst the Reverend Jorosci.

received 367 votes; whilst the Reverend Joseph R. Morris, who avowed that he could not take the oath, and declared that no one could "but a black-hearted tory," received 924, and James M. Shield, a rebel refugee, as he styled himself, from Tennessee, another candidate who could not take the oath received 215 oath, received 215.

Frank B. Gurley, the murderer of Briga-dier General Bob McCook, was elected Sheriff, his highest competitor being an ex-Colonel of the rebel army, a gentleman of nuch higher qualifications, and who gained genuine honors as a soldier.

These are bad indications of the temper of the people of Madison county. We regret most deeply to see them. In Heaven's name have they not suffered enough? Why should they now offer defiance to the General Government? What do they expect to accomplish by it?

The Mormons in Conference. A great conference of the Mormons was held at Salt Lake City from the 6th to the 10th of October, inclusive, but no new revelation was announced, and the principal thing done, except self-glorification, was to deliver one Walter M. Gibson over to the buffetings of Satan. President Brigham Young dismissed the conference with this rather lofty benediction.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

The Hon. John M. Botts is to be one of the United States Senators from Virginia. The Norfolk Post says: There can be little doubt of Mr. Botts' election to the United States Senate, though Gen. Millson, of Norfolk, has been suggested also. Millson is a man of great intellect and high character. Like Mr. Botts, he has been a Unionist throughout the late struggle.

The New Orleans Picayune says that even before emancipation the free colored people of Louisiana were allowed the same rights in court as the white man. In all civil matters he could sue and be sued, gi estimony for or against a white man, make testimony for or against a white man, make contracts, exercise his trade or profession, make wills or receive legacies. Under this law some eight or ten thousand colored people have lived in that city ever since it was established, and have had full protection of all their rights, have been prosperous, happy and respected, many of them having grown rich, and have proved valuable and productive members of society.

President Johnson has sent the following President Johnson has sent the following to Governor Murphy, of Arkansas: "There will be no interference with your present organization of State government. I have learned from E. W. Grant, Esq., and other sources, that all is working well, and you will preced and resume former relations with the Federal Government, and all the aid and power of the Government will be given in restoring the State to its former relations." General Grant says: "Those three lations." General Grant says: "Those three important questions have been settled in Arkansas: First, the insertion of the clause in the State Constitution forever prohibit-ing slavery. Second, the repudiation of the confederate debt. Third, the prompt ratification, by the Legislature, of the constitu-tional amendment abolishing slavery. The State government has been in operation since March, 1864."

At a recent meeting of the negroes in Edgecomb county, North Carolina, (where they are nearly equal in numbers to the whites, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That representation and taxation should go hand in hand; and it is diametrically opposed to republican institutions to tax us for the support and expense of the government, and at the same time deny us the right of representation.

The Richmond Enquirer gravely publishes the following: lishes the following:

"It is reported on good authority in Washington that President Johnson will appoint his Cabinet early in December, and that Reverdy Johnson will be Secretary of State; Gen. McClellan, Secretary of War; Gen. Dix, Secretary of the Navy; and a distinguished Southern gentleman Attorney General. It is said, on the same authority, that the President will not submit to the exclusion from Congress of the South. to the exclusion from Congress of the South-ern members, as proposed by the radicals. His message will distinctly announce those States as being in the Union, and entitled to full representation. The President will not recognize the right of the members from the Northern States to exclude the members from the Southern States. The Result in New Jersey. The Newark Daily Advertiser of last evening says: The conflict is over and the revolution is complete! The glorious sun which yester-day warmed and enlivened the patriotism day warmed and enlivened the patriotism of the people, is again radiant to-day with cheering benedictions upon the thrice-glo rious victory they have so nobly won. To sum up the grand result in a single breath March L. Ward is closed covernor of New Jersey by nearly four thousand majority; both branches of the legislature are in full sympathy, having a Union majority of one in the Senate, twelve in the House the influence of New Jersey for the great measures necessary to perfect the work or restoring and perpetuating the Union and its free institutions, and in case the election of Hon. John P. Stockton to the United States Senate last winter shall be declared illegal, which we understand is quite probable, it will secure a United States Senator for the Union in his place.

This grand result is not due to any spasmodic effort on the part of political managers, nor to any sudden caprice, but to the deliberately-formed judgment of the peo-

The campaign was of unusual length, af fording abundant opportunity for them to form their opinions; the State was never so thoroughly canvassed by oraters on both sides; and by political documents in the in-terests of both parties; the meetings were never so frequent or se universally crowded with reflecting men; all the questions at issue were discussed for months, upon the rostrum, in the papers, the work-shops and domestic circle; and the people had also enjoyed the intercourse of returned soldiers, who brought home to their own fire-sides the practical results of their observation and experience, thus aiding them vastly in forming intelligent opinions.

Besides all this, those who had been intrusted with political management in this State under other circumstances, had done much to prepare the people for a change by their own indifference, if not unfriendliness to the Union cause during its most trying hours. Stung by chagrin at the false position in which they had placed the State, the people still displayed extraordinary forbearance, and not till they had patiently listened to all that could be said in their defense, did they venture to condemn them. It is a most gratifying reflection that them. It is a most gratifying reflection that the judgment now pronounced with such stunning power will command all the more respect abroad on account of the great de-liberation in which it was formed, and will be more enduring in its good effects at

A Washington letter says the famous Senatorial drinking saloon, known as the "Hole-in-the-Wall," and one of the old landmarks of the Capitol for thirty years, has been completely demolished in the improvements which are being made in the Congressional Library. It was in the form of an octogon, about ten feet in diameter, and was accessible in the rear of the old Senate post-office. Over the door there was a sign which read "Exclusively for Senators," but outside barbarians were occasionally allowed to peep into this shrine of Bacchus. Within a loyal American of African descent dispensed Senatorial inspiraens of the Lord. Sanders,—George N. Sanders is growing "immensely unpopular" in Canada. Not-withstanding the undignified proceedings ing to abduct him, and who locked the juryup for ten days, they refused to find a verdict of conviction. A third trial has been

News of the Day.

The Indiana Legislature met in special session yesterday. The Fourth and Fifteenth regiments of the Veteran Reserve Corps, were mustered out at Springfield, Ill., on Saturday. The South Carolina Legislature yester-day adopted the Constitutional Amendment out much opposition. A Court is being organized to try Winder and Duncan, now confined in the Old Capi-tol, who were associates of Wirz at Anderhat flourishing city. It is stated that the President informed an ex-Confederate General that for the present no more of the military or civil leaders of the rebellion would be pardoned.

The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser states that Daniel Pratt, of Prattsville, has again begun the making of cotton gins. He has been in the business since 1839, and in that time has made over 17,000 gins.

A great meeting was held in New York last night, under the auspices of the American Union Commission, to raise means to relieve the destitute of the South. Speeches were made by Governor Parsons, of Alabama, General Meade, Henry Ward Beecher Governor Perry has addressed a letter to

At the election in Louisiana all the candidates for Congress elected are Democrats, except Joseph Barker of New Orleans, who was on the Conservative Union ticket. New Orleans, Wells, for Governor, and Vorhees, for Lieutenant Governor, received an overwhelming majority. In the country parishes, so far as heard from, the result was the same, and they are probably

The statement published in our dispatch to systement published in our appaces a yesterday about Wirz's wife conveying to him the means of destroying himself, and thus cheating the gallows, is denied. Mr. Schade, Wirz's counsel, brings proof to show that Mrs. Wirz was in Kentucky at the time she was charged with attempting to convey poison to her husband. Wirz has been buried by the side of the assassination conspirators, Mrs. Surratt, Payne, Har-rold and Atzerot.

The news from Europe is interesting. The Ministerial crisis in England was not passed. The N. Y. Times' Paris correspondent says that French troops will be gradually withdrawn from Mexico. James McHenry, formerly a Lieutenant in the 9th Conn., had been arrested at Dublin, on suspicion of having some connection with the Fenian movement. Suspicious articles were found upon him, such as a revolver n-and a pocket knife, per haps-and he was held for a further exam-

Several of our prominent Generals have received diplomatic appointments, Gen. Logan has been offered the commissioner-ship to Japan; Gen. Sickles will be sent to one of the South American States, while Gen. Kilpatrick, after having been brevet-ed a Brigadier and Major General in the distinctions. The specialized for, him these so changed the title of Fort Runyon, near Washington, to Fort Kilpatrick. This substitution of designation is the more significant as the fort bore the name of the defeatnocratic candidate for Governor of tian county meeting is as follows. New Jersey.

The election in Wisconsin has resulted in the choice of General Lucius Fairchild for Governor, and the election of the entire Union ticket by about 6000 majority. The Constitutional Amendment upon the suffage question is probably defeated by a small majority. Milwaukee gave the Democracy 2550 last year, and 1900 at the late election. Minnesots gives Marshall the election. Minnesota gives Marshall, the Union candidate for Governor, about 5000 majority. The result on the suffrage question is doubtful, but the vote is probably against it. The Tribune thus speaks of the election in New York: "The returns from this State improve with every revision." this State improve with every revision. Co-lumbia has gone for us, instead of the other way, as usual. Albany gives less than 200 against us, while it elects a Union Senator, for the first time. Erie gives us nearer 1000 than 500. Kings gives only 1400, while a good part of the local ticket is in great doubt. Of the election of the Union candidate for Mayor of Brooklyn, and of five Union Assemblymen out of the seven, there is, of course, no doubt. Our majority in the Legislature is indeed inconveniently large. We have five-sixths of the Senate and threefourths of the Assembly.

The Southern People. (For the Union Press.)

The Journal insists that "the Southern people can fairly ask to be let alone," "can in the fullest confidence be trusted with the powers which legitimately belong to States, as has been fully demonstrated;" yet, in the same number, warns them "not to be hum-bugged by Northern Democratic radicals," and says, "the morale for the South of the Northern elections is the adoption of such measures as will take the wind out of Stevens-Sumner sails. If the Southern States shut their eyes and stop their ears, atter the old fashion, to plainly evident facts, as exhibited in the elections just had, and go on pell-mell, a la secession, they must abide the consequences. If the Southern States want military law indefinitely longed, they can undoubtedly have it.

This warning and advice, and these ifs, i they mean anything, mean that the South-ern people need not and should not ask or expect to be "let alone" until they hav discarded "the old fashion" and manifestly appreciated "the morale of the Northern elections."

[For the Union Press.]

Jeff. Davis. The Journal, before the recent Republican "easy triumphs and large gains," called loudly for the "immediate pardon of Jeffer-son Davis as demanded by the public opinion of this country and to promote the national harmony." "To pardon Mr. Davis at once would gratify the Southern people good policy and good sense." But the Journal lauds "the motives of sident Johnson, in withholding pardon from Mr. Davis," as "patriotic in the highest degree," and declares that "in view of the President's magnanimous policy toward the Southern masses, they certainly can not complain of his determination to arraign for trial the for trial the representative man of the re-bellion, in order to test, by a solemn judicial dect ion, the question of his treason, and vindicate the integrity of the nation in its great struggle with rebellion. MARCO. SLAVERY AND SOUTHERN METHODISM This is the title of a neatly printed pamprinted pamphlet containing two sermons preached in the Methodist Church, in Newman, Geor-gia, by the Pastor, Rev. John H. Caldwell, of the Georgia Conference. Our readers have had a taste of these remarkable discourses in the extracts we gave them a short time since. Civill & Calvert have the work for sale at 25 cents. Kentucky claims to be a member of the Union in full connection and in good standing. By dociging this thing and skulking that other, playing fast and loose with both loyalty and rebellion, she wormed her way through the war and came out nominally on the side of the Government, but vir tually astride the fence and with her face turned rebellionward. In answer to the appeals to take her stand promptly and squarely on the side of loyality and freedom, she talked regretfully of the "Cristenden resiolutions." She declares that having never ceded she is happily exempt from that deestable penalty of secession, the securing to her inhabitants, without distinction of color, personal liberty with all its rights and immunities. She tried to play the role of mediator at the outset, obstinately persisting in getting into the gulf that divided the rebelling from the loyal States. In that gulf she still lies, the most unfortunate of the States that favored rebellion, and the least fortunate of those that favored the cause of the Union.

Double dealers never succeed, or if there s an appearance of success, it is so temporary and is compromised to such an extent that it becomes unluckier and more humil iating than failure. Yet there are people so incurably akimbo that nothing this side of death avails to set them right in the world. To this class of unfortunate creatures we have come to believ; the "Conservatives" of this State belong. It is evident that their stultifying manner of talking and acting has not yet brought embarrassment and disgrace enough upon themselves and the State to give them any more wisdom than they had five years ago. Indeed, it may be safely set down to their account that that is not the way in which wisdom can be imparted to them. They would have had some show of finding and possessing themselves of that jewel if they had openly and aboveboard followed their sympathies by going into the rebel service, and so had a chance of having it pounded into them by loyal arms.

We have been led to make these remarks by two interesting documents before us, one the letter of Mr. W. A. Dudley on "the Slavery Question in Kentucky;" the other an account of a meeting of the citizens of Christian county in this State, with the draft of a constitution, for effecting an organization in that county for the purpose of regulating the labor of the negroes.

Mr. Dudley sets out by declaring that slavery is practically dead in Kentucky, and wishes to contribute what he can to wards devising and perfecting the wisest and justest adjustment possible of the relations of the freedmen and the whites. "The slaves of the State," he says, "are already practically free without any action of the Legislature" and without any action of a State convention. He proceeds to elaborate a plan for controlling and making profitable the labor of the negroes thus freed, trusting this plan, or some similar one, will receive the sanction of the Legislature and thus become the law of the State. We think it cannot have escaped the notice of the watchful man that the starting point and principle underlying the whole proposed plan is such that, if adopted, it would virtually work a wholesale rendition back to slavery of all those just declared to be practically free. He says:

I would declare "that every negro in th Gen. Kilpatrick, after having been breveted a Brigadier and Major General in the Regular Army, has been appointed Minister to Chili. His successful management of the New Jersey campaign, as well as his servellistictions. The contral of the laws of the source of the laws of the laws of the source of the laws of the source of the laws of the laws of the source of the laws of the laws of the source of the laws of the la The italics are our own.

Resolved, 2. That the fundamental ciple that shall govern the action of said association shall be that no negro now or formerly held as a slave by a member of ociation who has not parted with the title, shall be employed by a mem of, without the written consent of said for mer owner. The first point that stikes us in both these declarations is the utter ignoring of the President's proclamation, declaring the slaves of rebels free, and also the families of colored soldiers in the Federal service. It is not possible that Mr. Dudley or the Christian county men can be such dullards as to suppose that they or the "sovereign Commonwealth" herself will have the unbounded satisfaction of setting that proclamation aside. And yet what does their language mean, if it does not mean that they expect to make it of no effect?

To all intents and purposes, both plans propose to continue the relation of master and slave. And if allowed to run on under the proclivities of old slaveholders and pro-slavery men, would soon develop into the identical system which has robbed the country of so much blood and treasure. And what is quite as strange, Mr. Dudley proposes to return immediately to the use of the cat-o'-nine-tails. Here are some of his proposed punitive ordinances: A negro leaving his employer's service during the time for which he hired himsel during the time for which he hired himsels should forfeit all wages due him, and be compelled to labor for his employer during the remainder of the year, at half the agreed rate of wages. In the event of his continued refusal to labor, he should be ubject, on conviction before a magistrate

Any negro who for thirty days after the lst of Jannary in any year should be found without a regular employer, should be held to be a vagrant, and on conviction be fined to the appropriate of one to the amount of one month's ordinary wages, in default of payment of which he should be put to labor on the county roads at the rate of one dollar per day until the fine be paid. Failure or refusal to work on unty roads when so convicted should be punished with thirty-nine lashes and ball and chain. If after payment of his fine the negro shall still remain nnemployed for thirty days, he may again be punished with a double penalty, to be enorced in the same manner.

He would also "repeal all laws which enforce a penalty on one person for hiring THE SLAVE of another." But Mr. Dudley plan is adopted by the Legislature, slavery has a front place on the "anxious seat?" will be reinstated on the soil of Kentucky in its primitive glory by the time a convenion can be called under the Constitution.

Many of the provisions of both plans are excellent; and if men could be induced to set about such a work from the right starting point, there would be hope of Kentucky entering upon the new era of our growth and prosperity as auspiciously as her sister Southern States.

KENTUCKY --- PLAYING FAST AND SHERMAN AND HIS CAMPAIGNS: a Military Biography. By Col. S. M. Powers Biography. By Col. S. M. Bowman and Lieut. Col. R. B. IRWIN. New York

It will be some centuries before the world will grow tired of reading of Sherman and his campaigns. Prior to Sherman's full development as a military chieftan, Jackson's campaign in Louisiana was justly regarded as the miraculous campaign in American history. But even that, great as it was, and great as it will ever be in the world's estimation, must yield to Sherman's emarkable deeds. We once heard General Grant say, after he had thoroughly tested Sherman, that he had no superior in the military council, on the march, or in the field of battle. This judgment will not be modified in any great degree, if at all, by a most intimate knowledge of the great leader. If Grant was the Agamemnon of the national forces, no one will question Sherman's title to be considered the Ajax Tela-

The biography before us is a worthy tribute to the geinus and merits of Sherman. The abundant materials in the hands of the authors have been handled with consummate skill and judgment in the production of a biography worthy of the great theme. The authors are warm friends of General Sherman, as they must need be, knowing him as they do, but the friends' life is never faulty in the biography. No more than simple justice is rendered to him. There are numerous details of Sherman's Kentucky administration, which are not even referred to in this biography. which we regard as the only blemish in the work. The people of Kentucky were the first to appreciate the matchless merits of Sherman as a military man, and they followed him in all his campaigns with an unfaltering faith in his pre-eminent abilities. There must have been something to create and maintain this popular judgment and we think that these biographers could materially add to the value of a future edition by ascertaining that there is a Kentucky city called Louisville, which is comewhat connected with the career of General Sherman. In all respects, Colonel Bowman and Lieut, Col. Irwin are well up to the mark.

The biography of General Sherman consists of five hundred and twelve pages of capital reading matter. The work is adorned with portraits, finely engraved, of Major Generals Sherman, Howard, Slocum, Logan, F. P. Blair, Schoneld, J. C. Davis, and J. Kilpatrick. To these are added maps of the campaign and siege of Atlanta, from Atlanta to the sea, from Savannah to Goldsboro, and operations around Resaca.

We are thankful to the authors for their tribute of justice to Gen. Burbridge in the ssault on Arkansas Post. The war exhibited no finer or more desperate fighting than that in which Burbridge was the important leader in the capture of Arkansas Post.

Geo. W. Noble, who was one of the first purveyors of cheap literature to the people of Louisville, has the agency of this capital work, and has commenced the canvass of the city for subscribers. We wish him an abundant success. All who love Sherman should possess this testimonial to the object of their admiration.

GATHERING CONSOLATION,

Failing to get any cheer out of the reurns of the late elections, the Democrat betakes itself to other sources of consolaion in this wise:

The Abolition press are as gaseous and bloviating as if they had an eternal lease of power. They are a good deal green. The def ated party always have room to gain years have made great changes; four years more may make greater. They may see sights and hear sounds. Nothing more common now. So let him that standeth take heed lest he fall. We would not take eir place for all they can make, or what is stronger still, for all they can steal.

There are depths of consolation, we take t, in the fact that the Abolition press are 'bloviating," although we are free to confess that, being wholly ignorant of the sig nification of the word, they do not reveal themselves to us. Worcester, too, found no one the infinite depths of whose grief yielded any such term. We are satisfied that it is the Democrat's own coining, and gushed forth beneath the mountain weight of sorrow cast upon it by the elections of last Tuesday. We recommend it to turn at once for consolation to Fuller's "Good Thoughts in Bad Times," which will sustain it in its sorrow until the policy of Congress and the President shall have been fully developed, when it should apply for succor to "Good Thoughts in Worse Times." by the same author About that time it will begin to see those "sights" and hear those "sounds" of which it now has some faint premonitions, indicative of its speedy departure for that equable clime where times are never good, never bad, never vorse, but always worst. We wish we knew who it is that has shown himself so lost to all sense of the sacredness of sorrow as to commit the profane act of offering the Democrat, in this hour of its calamity, a place among the Abolition Press. We would present him for indictment by a Kentucky grand jury.

DOCTORS DISAGREEING.

The Democrat thinks that although the Union Press is green, the Democratic party will live long after it is buried and forgotten. On the contrary, the New York News flatly confesses "that little short of a special interposition of Providence can save the party from total disintegration." It (the News) has not the slightest faith in the party managers; and poor Ben, sitting in sackcloth and ashes beneath the heavy calamity of last Tuesday, reads the party a sermon on its past sins, and on the duty to repent and be converted, closing with the exhortation, "Do what you think right, and take place and power as an accident.' If this be not genuine serio-comic, then we may conclude that the "special interposition of Providence" which Ben looks for does not propose to repeal any other law or is expected in answer to an earnest effort. laws regulating and maintaining slavery in such as is commonly called a "protracted Kentucky. We should not be surprised to effort," or "meeting," for the salvation o learn that he flatters himself that, if his the party. Will Ben see that the Democrat

Hon. John Wilson, the Republican Conressman elect from the Lafayette District ndiana, has been making a speech, in which he fully indorses the reconstruction policy of President Johnson. There is con-siderable sense for a Republican in the following extracts from his remarks. We take the above from the Journal of yesterday morning. Reading the extracts satisfied us that no Republican, except a pseudo one like General Slocum, would be caught making such statements, with the It is unnecessary, in view of Democratic drift they appear to have, as published by disasters in Maryland, New York, and the Journal. If the Journal will turn to its from some copperhead's speech?

RELIEVED .- Capt. Julius Fosse, who has been on duty in this city for some time as special inspector of cavalry, has been relieved from duty in this department, and ordered to report to the Adjutant General of the army, by letter.

SENT TO THE DRY TORTUGAS .- Sergeant George Watson, Co. "A," 125th U. S. C. I., and Daniel Baker, private in Co. "K," same regiment, have been sentenced by Court Martial to ten years labor in the Dry Tortugas, and to forfeit all pay and allow ances for some misdemeapor committed while in the military service.

DISCONTINUED.-Orders have been issued discontinuing the Military District of Western Kentucky, and Col. McArthur, commanding, is ordered to report to his regiment. All the brigades recently formed have also been broken up, and regimental and post-commanders ordered to report diee ly to Brevet Major General Jeff. C.

HOME FOR FRIENDLESS WOMEN.-We no tice that a home for friendless women is to be established in Nashville. We think that such an institution is greatly needed in Louisville. Day after day women are before the Police Court for slight misdemean ors, and sent to the work-house. If some kind of asylum were established for them, many would be reclaimed to society. At least, they could be saved from further degradation.

A GREAT NUISANCE .- Citizens residing on Ninth street, between Chestnut and Madison, complain loudly of the conduct of negroes and white men in that vicinity. Fire arms are recklessly used and the lives of citizens constantly in danger. We hope our police will look into the matter, and apply the proper remedy. Sunday night we learn the conduct of both whites and negroes in that vicinity was disgraceful. No less than eight pistol shots were fired in the

To CITY TAX PAYERS.—There is now five per cent. added to all tax bills, and on December 10th, ten per cent. will be added to all bills in the hands of the Receiver. All bills must be paid before the 15th of December (as a settlement with the city must be made on or before January 1st), and the furniture or the personal property of the party owing the taxes, if any be found, if subtenant was to sold for said taxes; and is there be no personal property upon the premises, the real estate will be levied on blos be A. RAMMERS, Receiver.

SHOOTING IN A CHURCH .- Last Monday night a negro woman was shot in the leg during service at the Church on Green street just below Preston. The affair was kept secret until yesterday, when officer Ryan heard of it. After examination he arrested Bill Alexander, a free negro, who did the shooting. Alexander states that the pistol was accidentally discharged. He had the woman removed to his house and called in medical attention. He will have a hearing before Judge Harbison this morn-

THE FIRST ARREST UNDER THE HOG ORDINANCE.-Captain Charles Junot, the Janitor of the city buildings, can claim the honor of making the first arrest under the new ordinance against allowing hogs to run in the streets. Captain Junot caught one yesterday and placed it under arrest in the jail yard, where we found it last night grunting over its misfortune. One of our city fathers got off a wicked joke on Capt. Junot, who in his verdant innocence asked if the hog did become his property by the arrest. The city father said he could see no reason why it should not belong to Charlie, as he was the greatest bore in town.

AN INTERESTING MEMORIAL,-Dr. Griffiths brought to our office yesterday a remarkable memento of that awfulest of all tragedies in the history of mankind-the assassination of President Lincoln. It is a piece of the dress worn by Miss Laura Keene on the night of the assassination crimsoned with the blood of our marryr President. It will be remembered that Miss Keene was playing at Ford's Theater on that memorable night, and, after the murderous deed had been committed, was the first to render assistance to the dying President. As the life-blood oozed from the fatal wound inflicted by the hand of the traitor assassin, it dripped upon and stained the dress of the lady whose ministerings to that good man in his last moments will be ever kindly remembered by all who revere his memory. Miss Keene, during her recent engagement here, presented this interesting memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of this city, who have had it neatly and appropriately framed.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS-Monday, Nov. 13. His Honor Judge Harbison presided. J. Hall was presented as a vagrant, and sent to the Almshouse.

For drunkenness and disorderly conduc were fined-James Scantlin $5, Albert Colby $5, Charles Beyerbach $5, Thomas Harmon $5, John O'Bryan $5, and Thomas Berry $5.

Barney McCoy was presented as a suspected felon, and discharged. Harrison Phillips (f. m. c.), disorderly conduct. Continued till to-morrow.

The Commonwealth vs. Catherine Bowes. for keeping a disorderly house. Motion made not to enter judgment, she being a married woman. Suspended. Charles St. Clair, suspected felon. Dis charged. Mary Gibbons, drunkenness. Discharged

Foster Smith (f. m. c.), stealing a pistol, The docket was then called.

Continued till Wednesday.

Officers Glass and Antle arrested Perry Sales yesterday for stealing corn from W. Daily, in the lower part of the city.

Body of a Child Found.-Yesterday as the men working on High street were at work they discovered the body of a child in a box, which had evidently been buried some time. The body was decently interred.

Lost Dog.-Policeman David Needy has

ssembled in Masonic Temple last night to see the great war show. La Rue gives besides the war show a splendid parlor entertainment. The great show will exhibit again to-night.

SHOOTING AFFAIR. - Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, a shooting affair oc curred near the corner of Clay and Franklin streets. Charles Best, who resides of the "Point," was shot by a man named terwards in the Confederate army, and had Phillips. It appears that Phillips, Best and a party of men were drinking pretty freely in a coffee-house at the corner of Shelby and Franklin streets, when a difficulty arose. In this difficulty Phillips was roughly used. He attempted to escape, and ran down towards the glass-works, pursued by Best and another man. Phillips attempted to beg off, when Best again commenced striking him. Phillips drew a small pistol from his pocket and fired, the ball striking Best just over the left eye. The wound is a severe, though not a dangerous one. Officers Ryan and Sinkhorn arrested Phillips and lodged him in jail.

The RAGGED SCHOOL in connection with the City Mission has reopened and is attended by a large number of poor and destitute children, who are greatly in need of clothing. The funds of the institution are very low and the teachers appeal to the benevolent for assistance. Contributions either in money or material can be sent to our City Missionary, Rev. I. M. Sadd, No. 211 Thirteenth street, near Chestnut, or if a line is directed to him through the Post Office he will call for the contributions. The material most needed is white cotton cloth, dark calico, and gray h'annel.

Please encourage us in our good work for the poor.

Additional Foreign News--France and Mexico--Fenianism--A Federal Lieut. Arrested. NEW YORK, Nov. 13 .- The British Gov ernment has ordered all restrictions on American vessels of war to be removed.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post says: The intended withdrawal of France from Mexico has lately assumed a more decided character. Maximilian would receive more aid from Austria and Belgium. is proposed to permit French officers and men to take the oath of allegiance to Maximilian if inclined to do so. Maximilian should find himself surrounded entirely by his own army. The correspondent says it can scarcely be supposed the U. S. Government would wish to overthrow Maximilian's Government and allow Mexico to return to the republic in confusion and anarchy. During the previous twenty-four hours it had fallen two inches at the bead of the fallen. the previous twenty-lour nours it had latten two inches at the head of the falls and six inches at Portland. HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful of mpanion, for the million a more enterprising triend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Saltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer. The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulegy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harrer's Magazine—a jurns with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 co ies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each unmber c. ntains folly leading and the more philosophical quartery, blendid with the good wood cuts; and it combines in itself the race monthly and the more philosophical quartery, blendid with the best features of the daily jou mal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Trubner's Guide to a merican Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

PREPARED BY DR. JOHN BULL. his Laboratory on 5th Cross Strapl,

SYMPTOMS. The Symtoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, then they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of tempera-ture. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward thick and adhesive creased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The se-cretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and masal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell essened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrhis that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morn-ing of a thick or slimy muceus, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should less no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms.

Write for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms; it will be sent FREE to any address.

If taken in time it never fails to cure the severest cases of croup.
